

DAN KARCHER

Voice of the Colorado Springs Sky Sox

Inducted October 25, 2016

Dan Karcher broadcasted his 27th season as the voice of Sky Sox baseball in 2016, making him one of the longest tenured play-by-play sports broadcasters in Colorado. At that time, he was beginning his 32nd season of baseball play-by-play, with 28 seasons at the Triple-A level.

Raised in Southern California, Karcher received his masters degree in speech communications from Bowling Green State University and his B.A. degree in broadcast communications from Cal State Fullerton. During his time in Colorado Springs, Dan also hosted a variety of local radio sports shows, including "Falcon Talk" with former Air Force Football Head Coach Fisher DeBerry,

"The First Team," and "Sox and Rox" with the Denver Post.

In 2005 and again in 2015, Karcher was honored with the "Award of Excellence" by the Colorado Broadcasters Association for the "Best Sports Coverage by an Individual or Team" in a major market.

Karcher has provided play-by-play commentary for multiple Colorado Rockies broadcasts and served as the lead play-by-play voice of Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference football and basketball telecasts, as well as the Junior College World Series on the Altitude Sports and Entertainment TV Network.
