

Jeff Smith, Chairman of the Board of Classic Homes, has been practicing generosity in the Pikes Peak Region and the city for more than two decades. Since 1989, Classic has given more than $3,500,000 to charities in the region, as well as millions more in land donations. Smith's organization, driven by his commitment to giving back locally, has sponsored large and small individuals and organizations, including youth sports and sports camp scholarships. Classic has been at the forefront of supporting non-profits in the area and remains committed to these efforts.