

BECKY (VARNUM) BUCOLO

Cheyenne Mountain High School Tennis

Inducted November 1, 2021

As a standout high school athlete, Becky (Varnum) Bucolo, dominated her competition becoming the first tennis player in Colorado's history to win four consecutive 4A singles titles. This amazing feat, paired with a perfect 68-0 record, makes her one of the best high school tennis players in state history.

Bucolo was named Sportswoman of Colorado in 1994, 1996, and 1998 and ranked 18th in the country during her senior year. In 1998, she was inducted into the Sportswomen of Colorado Hall of Fame.

She continued her education and tennis career at the University of Notre Dame where she earned Big East

Rookie of the Year as a freshman. She excelled her junior year and was ranked 8th in the country in doubles earning All-American accolades.

Bucolo currently holds ten Denver, State and Intermountain Section Championships titles - seven earned in 2001.

She was inducted into the Colorado Tennis Hall of Fame in 2009 and the Colorado High School Activities Association Hall of Fame in 2019. That same year, she earned her first career Gold Ball from the United States Tennis Association by winning the clay singles title in the women's 35-39 division in a national tournament in Kentucky.
