

COL. F. DON MILLER SPORTS SERVICE AWARD

The Colonel F. Don Miller Sports Service Award is presented annually by the Colorado Springs Sports Corporation to the person who best reflects the commitment exemplified by Colonel Miller in providing a lasting contribution to the Colorado Springs sports community. The presentation of this award to those locally dedicated to the importance of sports in building young lives is a fitting tribute to Colonel Miller and the thousands of young men and women who benefited from his unparalleled service on behalf of our nation's youth.

CARL FETTERS

Carl Fetters was a coach in high school sports for 44 years in Colorado Springs and for nine years at Colorado State University-Pueblo. He was the head football coach at Cheyenne Mountain High School for 30 years. He was the first inductee to Cheyenne Mountain High School's Hall of Fame in 2011, inducted to Adams State College Hall of Fame in 2013 and was named to the Colorado High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2014. At Cheyenne Mountain High School, Fetters recorded over 200 wins as the head football coach and also coached girls basketball, boys basketball and baseball while teaching physical education for 32 years. He graduated from Cheyenne Mountain in 1956, where he earned All-State honors in football, basketball and baseball. He was recruited as a single wing tailback by Dal Ward at University of Colorado-Boulder before transferring to Adams State College earning NAIA All-American honors in 1962 in football as a running back. He also played baseball. His 1962 Adams State University team went 9-1 under head coach Darrell Mudra and defeated Northern Illinois University in the Mineral Water Bowl. The Thunderwolves of Colorado State-Pueblo have won 8 straight RMAC championships and won the Division II National Championship in