

Colorado Springs Sports Corporation Welcomes New Staff

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 13, 2021

Colorado Springs, CO – To meet the growing changes in the developing sports industry, Colorado Springs Sports Corporation is excited to welcome new hires Davis Tutt, Brock Chartier, and Travis Stedman to the team. In addition, Sports Corp announces a new role for Molly Sharples.

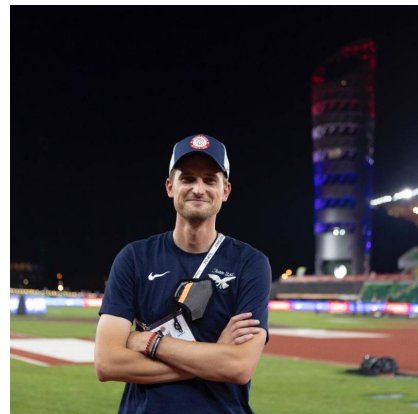

Sports Corp President & CEO, Megan Leatham shared, "The Colorado Springs Sports Corp is committed to supporting the sports community and delivering world class events to the Pikes Peak Region. We are thrilled to have a creative and energetic team to build on our established foundation as we move into 2022."

The Sports Corp looks to kick-off their 2022 events schedule with the Downtown Winter Fest Celebration on February 5, 2022 in the plaza of the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Museum.

DAVIS TUTT DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Davis Tutt joins Sports Corp as the Director of Operations. In this position, he will primarily lead the coordination of the 4th of July Symphony on Your Porch, Pikes Peak Airstrip Attack, and Colorado Springs Labor Day Lift Off, as well as provide operational support for many other areas of the organization.

Prior to Sports Corp, Tutt served as the Coordinator of NGB Services at the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Committee where he organized the National Governing Body Council, content creation & delivery of the USOPC's "Best Practices" seminars, and the planning & execution of the Team USA Olympic Team Trials. Tutt is a 2015 graduate from Colorado College with a degree in Art History and brings a wealth of experience to the team.

Tutt and his wife are proud residents of Colorado Springs where they spend time cruising around town on bikes, enjoying the outdoors, and playing golf.

Welcome Davis!

BROCK CHARTIER

EVENT COORDINATOR

Born and raised in Ottawa, KS, Brock Chartier joins the team as an Event Coordinator. With an undergraduate degree in Economics & Finance from Illinois College and a graduate degree in Sports Management from Missouri Western State University, Chartier brings an abundance of sports knowledge to the team.

As a former 4-year varsity soccer player at Illinois College, Chartier will plug in as lead on the Rocky Mountain State Games - Colorado's largest multi-sport festival. Prior to Sports Corp, Chartier was the Football and Track & Field Equipment Manager at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Chartier not only knows sports, but also knows shoes as he collects and has over 50 pairs! He is looking forward to presenting great events around the amazing city of Colorado Springs.

Welcome Brock!

TRAVIS STEDMAN EVENT COORDINATOR

Travis Stedman, joins Sports Corp as an Event Coordinator. Graduating from Liberty High School in 2017, Stedman went on to study at University of Colorado Colorado Springs where he earned his Sports Management degree in spring 2021.

Stedman started at Sports Corp as an intern in the fall of 2019, where he helped execute the Hockey Face-Off Luncheon and Colorado Springs Sports Hall of Fame. Now as an Event Coordinator, Stedman will play a leading role in the coordination of the Downtown Winter Fest, Colorado Springs Sports Hall of Fame, volunteer and hospitality coordination, and will support all other annual Sports Corp major events.

As a Colorado Springs native, he is looking forward to hosting events and growing the community he grew up in.

Welcome Travis!

MOLLY SHARPLES MARKETING DIRECTOR

Molly Sharples joined the team in 2019 as a summer intern. Following her internship, Sharples served as a full-time Event Coordinator 2019-2021 and is now taking on a new role as the Marketing Director. With a degree in Sports, Entertainment, and Event Management, and a passion for being on brand and community outreach, she brings extensive knowledge to this new position.

During her tenure with Sports Corp, Sharples has played a key role in the marketing & media execution and on major events such as the Sports Corp Golf Tournament, Rocky Mountain State Games, The Broadmoor Pikes Peak Cycling Hill Climb, and Colorado Springs Labor Day Lift Off.

Sharples is eager to continue connecting with the community and developing Sports Corp events!

Congratulations Molly!

The Sports Corp had an unparalleled year in 2021 and looks forward to raising the bar in 2022. For details on all major events and Sports Corp initiatives, visit ColoradoSpringsSports.org.
